Case No. '08 CV 530 IEG CAB

PETITION TO ENFORCE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE SUMMONS

Date: June 2, 2008

Time: 10:30 a.m.

Crtrm: 1

The Honorable Irma E. Gonzalez

Petitioner, the United States of America, by and through its counsel, KAREN P. HEWITT, United States Attorney, and RAVEN M. NORRIS, Assistant United States Attorney, petitions the Court for an order to enforce the Internal Revenue Service summonses described below and, in support thereof, alleges as follows:

1. This proceeding is brought at the request of the Chief Counsel, Internal Revenue Service, a delegate of the Secretary of the Treasury, and at the direction of the Attorney General of the United States.

2. Jurisdiction over these proceedings is conferred upon this Court by Internal Revenue Code 26 U.S.C. §§ 7402(b) and 7604(a) and 28 U.S.C. § 1345.

3. Venue is proper in the Southern District of California because Respondent, Natalie L. Fitch, resides in this district.

CR

1 4. At all times relevant, S. Silverman, who issued the summonses to Respondent, was a 2 Revenue Officer with the Internal Revenue Service (hereinafter "IRS"), employed in the Small 3 Business/Self-Employed Division, San Diego, California. See Declaration of Revenue Officer S.
4 Silverman at ¶ 1 (hereinafter "Silverman Decl."). Revenue Officer S. Silverman was authorized to issue
5 an IRS summons pursuant to the authority contained in 26 U.S.C. § 7602, and Treas. Reg. § 301.7602-1.
6 See id.

7 5. Respondent resides at 13848 Honnell Way, Jamul, California 91935, which is within the 8 geographical jurisdiction of this Court.

9 6. On June 21, 2005, Revenue Officer Silverman issued three IRS summonses directing 10 Respondent to appear before him on July 7, 2005, at 9:30 a.m. at 880 Front Street, San Diego, California.
11 The summonses required Respondent to give testimony and produce the documents and records specified 12 in each summons for examination. The first summons related to Respondent's continuing failure to file 13 Form 941 employment tax returns for the tax period beginning July 1, 2003, and ending March 31, 2005, 14 by Concrete Forming Contractors, Inc., a corporation of which Respondent is president (hereinafter 15 "Concrete Forming 941 Summons"). The second summons related to Respondent's continuing failure 16 to file Form 1120 corporation income tax returns for the tax years 2003 and 2004 by Concrete Forming 17 Contractors, Inc. (hereinafter "Concrete Forming 1120 Summons"). Silverman Decl. at ¶3. The third 18 summons related to Respondent's continuing failure to file personal income tax returns for the tax years 19 2001, 2002, 2003, and 2004. As stated below, the third summons has been replaced and superseded by 20 a new summons issued in April 2007 relating to Respondent's continuing failure to file personal tax 21 returns. Revenue Officer Silverman served the summonses on the Respondent on June 22, 2005, by 22 leaving an attested copy of each summons with Respondent's husband, Larry K. Fitch, at the 23 Respondent's last and usual place of abode, 13848 Honnell Way, Jamul, California 91935. Silverman 24 Decl. at ¶ 4. Copies of the summonses are attached to the Silverman Decl. as Exhibit A (Concrete 25 Forming 941 Summons), Exhibit B (Concrete Forming 1120 Summons).

26 7. On July 7, 2005, Respondent's husband, Larry K. Fitch, appeared and provided a copy of 27 a family trust document and certain 2005 bank statements for accounts in the name of the Respondent.
28 On July 7, 2005, at Larry K. Fitch's request, Revenue Officer Silverman granted additional time to

1 comply with the summonses, until July 14, 2005. On July 14, 2005, Respondent and Larry K. Fitch
2 appeared and provided an incomplete Internal Revenue Service Form 1040 for the taxable year 2001, 3 certain 2001 bank statements for accounts in the name of a family trust, and a handwritten list of deposits.
4 To date, Respondent has not provided any other documents requested by the summonses.
5 Silverman Decl. at ¶ 5.

6 8. On September 26, 2005, attorney Karen N. Sommers of the Office of Chief Counsel, 7 Internal Revenue Service, sent a letter to the Respondent providing her with another opportunity to 8 comply with the summonses and directing her to appear before Revenue Officer Silverman on 9 October 14, 2005, at 10:00 a.m. at 880 Front Street, Room 3293, in San Diego, California. Silverman 10 Decl. at ¶ 6. On October 14, 2005, Respondent's husband contacted Revenue Officer Silverman by 11 telephone, stated that Respondent did not have documents in response to the summonses but requested 12 a meeting with Revenue Officer Silverman. Revenue Officer Silverman declined to meet with 13 Respondent's husband unless Respondent could produce documents or testimony in compliance with the 14 summonses. Id. at ¶¶ 6, 7. To date, Respondent has not provided the other documents requested in the 15 summons. Id.

16 9. On April 3, 2007, Revenue Officer Silverman, as a result of ongoing investigation, issued 17 an updated IRS summons directing Respondent to appear before him on April 24, 2007, at 11:00 a.m.
18 at 880 Front Street, San Diego, California, to give testimony and to produce for examination the 19 documents and records specified in the summons. Specifically, Revenue Officer Silverman sought 20 additional information relating to Respondent's continuing failure to file personal income tax returns for 21 the tax year 2005. Accordingly, the new summons superseded replaced the prior 2005 issued summons 22 and related to Respondent's continuing failure to file personal income tax returns for the tax years 2001,
23 2002, 2003, 2004, and 2005 (hereinafter "Natalie Fitch Delinquent Returns Summons"). Revenue Officer 24 Silverman served the summons on Respondent on April 11, 2007, by leaving an attested copy of the 25 summons at her last and usual place of abode. Silverman Decl. at ¶ 7. A copy of the summons is 26 attached to the Silverman Decl. as Exhibit C.

27 10. The Respondent did not appear on April 24, 2007, and to date, Respondent has not 28 provided the testimony or documents requested in the summons. Silverman Decl. at ¶ 8.

1 11. All administrative steps required by the Internal Revenue Code for the issuance of a 2 summons have been taken. Silverman Decl. at ¶ 10.

3 12. In order to obtain judicial enforcement of an IRS summons, the United States bears the 4 initial burden of showing "that the investigation will be conducted for a legitimate purpose, that the 5 inquiry may be relevant to the purpose, that the information sought is not already within the 6 Commissioner's possession, and that the administrative steps required by the Code have been followed..."
7 United States v. Powell, 379 U.S. 48, 57-58 (1964); accord, United States v. Dynavac, 6 F.3d 1407, 1414
8 (9th Cir. 1993). The burden on the Government is a "slight one" and may be satisfied by presenting the 9 declaration of the agent who issued the summons and is seeking enforcement. Id. (citing United States 10 v. Abrahams, 905 F.2d 1276, 1280 (9th Cir. 1990)(other citations omitted)). Once a prima facie case has 11 been made, "a heavy burden falls on the taxpayer" to show an abuse of the court's process or lack of 12 institutional good faith. Dynavac, 6 F.3d at 1414. The taxpayer "must allege specific facts and evidence 13 to support his allegations." Liberty Financial Services v. United States, 778 F.2d 1390, 1292 (9th Cir.
14 1985) (citation omitted). This matter may be decided on the written record in a summary proceeding.
15 Hotz v. United States, No. MISC-CV-F-95-32, 1996 WL 159695 at * 2 (E.D. Cal. Jan. 9, 1996). To be 16 entitled to an evidentiary hearing, a respondent must make some showing to refute the United States'
17 prima facie case or present facts supporting an affirmative defense. See Fortney v. United States, 59 F.3d 18 117, 121 (9th Cir. 1995).

19 13. Revenue Officer Silverman is conducting an investigation to determine Respondent's 20 income tax liabilities for the years 2001 through 2005, to determine the employment tax liabilities of 21 Concrete Forming Contractors, Inc., for tax periods beginning July 1, 2003, and ending March 31, 2005,
22 and to determine the income tax liabilities of Concrete Forming Contractors, Inc., for the tax years ending 23 2003 and 2004. Silverman Decl. at ¶ 2.

24 14. The Internal Revenue Code specifically allows the issuance of a summons for the purpose 25 of "determining the liability of any person for any internal revenue tax...or collecting any such liability..."
26 26 U.S.C. § 7602(a). Therefore, Revenue Officer Silverman's investigation is being conducted pursuant 27 to a legitimate purpose specifically authorized by statute.

28 ///

1 15. Further, with the exception of the items discussed above in paragraph 7, the books, papers, 2 records, or other data sought by the summonses are not already in the possession of the IRS, and the 3 administrative steps required by the Code, including proper service, have been followed. Silverman 4 Decl. at ¶¶ 4, 7, 9, and 10.

5 16. Respondent is in possession and control of testimony and documents concerning the 6 above-described investigation.

7 17. The Internal Revenue Code permits the Secretary to summon the records of any person 8 "which may be relevant or material" to the investigation. 26 U.S.C. § 7602(a)(1). It is well-settled that 9 to satisfy the relevancy requirement set forth in Powell, the United States must demonstrate that the 10 summoned information may "throw light" on the subject of the investigation. United States v. Arthur 11 Young & Co., 465 U.S. 805, 813-14, n. 11 (1984). This standard necessarily presents a low threshold 12 because of the inherent difficulties in ascertaining, prior to examination, how much use the summoned 13 records will be in determining the collectibility of a person's tax liability and whether a person has an 14 income tax liability for a specific period. The Supreme Court has observed that:

15 [a]s the language of §7602 clearly indicates, an IRS summons is not to be judged 16 by the relevance standards used in deciding whether to admit evidence in federal 17 court The language "may be" reflects Congress' express intention to allow 18 the IRS to obtain items of even potential relevance to an ongoing investigation, without reference to its admissibility. The purpose of Congress is obvious: the Service can hardly be expected to know whether such data will in fact be relevant until they are procured and scrutinized.

19 Arthur Young & Co., 465 U.S. at 814 (internal citation omitted) (emphasis in original). This low 20 threshold of relevance also follows from the language of the Code, which authorizes the investigation 21 of persons who "may be liable" for taxes. 26 U.S.C. § 7601.

22 18. Under the instant circumstances, it is clear that the summoned material is relevant. One 23 purpose of Revenue Officer Silverman's investigation is to determine Respondent's ability to pay the 24 individual income tax liabilities assessed against her for the taxable years 2001 through 2005. The Natalie 25 Fitch Delinquent Returns Summons seeks, among other things, information " . . . reflecting the receipt 26 of taxable income . . . " during the years 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, and 2005. Silverman Decl. at Exhibit
27 D. The documents sought by the summons are clearly relevant to the determination of the respondent's 28 income tax liabilities for the taxable years 2001 through 2005. Another purpose of Revenue Officer

1 Silverman's investigation is to determine the employment tax liabilities of Concrete Forming Contractors, 2 Inc., for tax periods period beginning July 1, 2003, and ending March 31, 2005. The Concrete Forming 3 941 Summons seeks, among other things, records "... relating to wages paid ..." Id. at Exhibit A. The 4 documents sought by these summons are clearly relevant to the determination of the employment tax 5 liabilities of Concrete Forming Contractors, Inc. Finally, Revenue Officer Silverman's investigation must 6 also determine the corporation income tax liabilities of Concrete Forming Contractors, Inc., for the tax 7 years 2003 and 2004. The Concrete Forming 1120 Summons seeks, among other things, books and 8 records "... reflecting the receipt or accrual of all income and expenses ..." Silverman Decl. at Exhibit
 9 B. The documents sought by this summons are clearly relevant to the determination of the corporation 10 income tax liabilities of Concrete Forming Contractors, Inc.

11 19. There is no Department of Justice referral for criminal prosecution in effect with respect 12 to the Respondent or Concrete Forming Contractors, Inc. Silverman Decl. at ¶12.

13 WHEREFORE, the United States requests that:

14 1. The Court enter an order directing Respondent, Natalie L. Fitch, to show cause, if any, 15 why she should not comply with and obey the above-described summonses (Silverman Decl. at Exhibits 16 A, B, and C) served on her on June 22, 2005, and on April 11, 2007, and each and every requirement 17 thereof, by ordering the attendance, testimony, and production of books, papers, records, and other data 18 required and called for by the terms of the summonses before Revenue Officer S. Silverman, or any other 19 proper officer or employee of the Internal Revenue Service at such time and place as may be fixed by 20 Revenue Officer Silverman or any other proper officer or employee of the Internal Revenue Service.

21 2. The United States recover the costs and expenses incurred maintaining this action against 22 Respondent.

23 3. That the Court grant such other and further relief as may be required.

24 Dated: March 21, 2008

Respectfully submitted,
